

Marsh FIELD SERVICE - Technical Service Agreement

WHY YOU SHOULD CONSIDER A MARSH TECHNICAL SERVICES SUPPLY AGREEMENT

REDUCED COST

- Formalized pre-approved process thus reducing site personnel's administration time.
- Volume and long term pricing considerations.
- Improved forecasting and manpower scheduling for Marsh thus reducing Marsh's downtime and maintaining competitive pricing.

EFFECTIVE PEOPLE

- Marsh has established itself at many customer sites with proven performance with respect to providing Instrumentation and Electrical Technical and Engineering Services.
- Marsh employees require little administration or direction as they are experienced with your industry and highly qualified to carry out their job function.

RESPONSE

- Our business is providing technical expertise on short and long term contracts from our own employee base with the ability to provide repeat employees with process understanding of your systems.

Marsh Strengths

Large enough to meet most industry needs yet small enough to be highly responsive and cost effective.

Strong reputation for excellence: Over 90% repeat usage of service by satisfied customers over a ten year period.

Assured Top Management Involvement: to ensure client satisfaction.

Extensive experience in design, plants, start-ups, operations and maintenance, QA, training, procedure developed and upgrades.

Strong financial position: Permits the best equipment and support systems available to respond to client needs and requests.

Focused in the process and automation Industries.

Audited Quality Assurance Programs maintained to the Highest Industry Standards.

Contact Us: instrumentationservices@marshinst.com